FTR E-Learning Solutions

Make the most of your For The Record (FTR) digital court recording system with FTR's online, self-paced product training.

Whether you have new employees, your organization is upgrading to a new version of FTR software or your team simply needs a refresher, FTR's E-Learning is an easy way to get users up-to-speed, confident and in control of your digital recording system.

FTR's E-Learning courses are available via the Adobe Captivate Prime platform, a browser-based learning management system that allows users to experience customized and engaging learning experiences across multiple platforms.

The courses cover all aspects of the FTR Gold product suite from how to create Log Notes; insert quick notes for common occurrences; save copies of recordings; through to reformatting and encrypting FTR recordings.

Deliver record results through:

- A mix of static and interactive online courses
- Quiz-based challenges throughout to reinforce important concepts
- Flexible access starting at 30 days
- Enrollment and completion reporting by courses and users.

"FTR's E-Learning courses are very informative and easy to follow."
